

Port of Brownsville
Newsletter June 2020

It is shocking to think it is already June 2020. The weather is starting to get nicer and the marina is starting to pick up in business. Please remember even as the county switches into Phase 2 there are very strict guidelines for us to follow including these:

- Recreation - Outdoor recreation involving 5 or fewer people outside your household (camping, beaches, etc.)
- Gatherings - Gather with no more than 5 people outside your household per week
- High Risk Populations are still encouraged to stay home.

WE'RE HIRING!

Our job advertisement is out on LinkedIn and the Washington Public Ports Association website: www.washingtonports.org If you are wishing to apply or know someone who may be please direct them to those sites or have them contact the Port office or wendys@portofbrownsville.org to request an application packet.

We are also ready to hire our summer help. Please stop into the office to fill out an application. If interested these jobs potentially could become permanent at some future date.

As most of you know we are still continuing to build our vessel compliance program. This included removing the sunken vessels and others that have been on the list for some time. Please continue to have patience as these events take time and have many steps to their processes to make sure we do things according to the derelict vessel act.

As I write this newsletter the Island Gypsy is scheduled to be removed tomorrow May 28, 2020 through the derelict vessel bid program. It has been a year to get this to this point so we are grateful to finally be moving things along in this area and will continue to build this program from here.
